Dear Mr. Dorn:

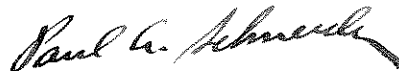

For your information, I am enclosing the copy of the second letter which I wrote to Father Flanagan of the Nebraska orphanage and his reply to the same, received today. It helps us little, to be sure and it would appear that the reverend gentleman won't be bothered or knows little about the operation of the plan himself.

However, I trust that you may still find some worth in the suggestion and that you can explore its possibilities further with the aid of members in your organization who are familiar with the finance and legal problems involved. I am unfortunately lacking of acquaintances who could help me further in this.

Meanwhile, I shall feel gratified if my meddling with this has at least stimulated thought that may lead to some benefit to the George School enterprise and I shall be alert to any other opportunity to offer whatever help I can.

I still have in mind the organization of a class in my neighborhood in the near future but would like first to have the preparation which your review or teachers' course affords. Will you, therefore, please accept my enrolment for the next class at your headquarters and notify me of the date?

Very truly yours,

Paul A. Schneider
