

Gloucester, Mass.,

January 22, 1917.

My dear Mr. McKendrick:-

I was not at home when John White was here last night and so was not able to give him this letter which came under my care. Will you see that it is forwarded to him and greatly oblige. He gave us as usual a fine talk. Sorry I could not be at the banquet Saturday night.

Sincerely,

LMP/PT

10502